Bug Bounty programs have revolutionised the way organisations approach cybersecurity by tapping into a global community of ethical hackers to identify and report vulnerabilities. As cyber threats continue to proliferate, Bug Bounty programs have become an essential part of any organisation's cybersecurity strategy.

Bug Bounty is often mistaken to be only accessible to larger companies with significant resources. However, in actuality, even small to medium businesses can participate and reap the benefits. By offering incentives to ethical hackers, Bug Bounty provides an efficient and cost-effective way to identify and remediate vulnerabilities.

Join us on 7 March, 10:00 am SGT, for an engaging workshop on Navigating the Bug Bounty Landscape, featuring expert insights from YesWeHack and Talenox

AiSP Bug Bounty Workshop 13 April 2023

In this hands-on workshop, attendees will have the opportunity to get started in the world of Bug Bounty. YesWeHack will provide a pre-configured "hacking playground" – a fake online shop with common vulnerabilities and security flaws – as well as guidance on installing the hacking tools needed to identify and exploit these vulnerabilities. Working independently, attendees will use the tools and techniques discussed in the workshop to find and exploit vulnerabilities in the hacking playground. This workshop is ideal for anyone interested in learning more about Bug Bounty and gaining hands-on experience in a controlled setting. By the end of the workshop, attendees will have a better understanding of the challenges and rewards of Bug Bounty, and be better equipped to start their own Bug Bounty journey.

Elevating Transformation With Digital Trust 25 April 2023

As a wave of digital transformation continues, increasing data and workloads are sitting in the cloud. While this has driven efficiencies for organizations it has also increased the attack surface. Customer and business partnerships can be irreparably damaged and trust lost if data and systems are breached, so effectively securing access to data and systems, regardless of where they reside is paramount.

Join us to learn more about the importance of digital trust in your transformation journey, and how you can build confidence in the integrity of your digital ecosystem by safeguarding your systems and data.

Professional Course Development

EC-Council's Blockchain Certifications Overview

EC-Council's blockchain certification courses are curated by experts to support the growing demand for skilled blockchain professionals.

These programs have been designed to meet the industry requirements of developers, business leaders, and fintech professionals in this rapidly growing area.

Our blockchain certification courses consist of three knowledge and competency areas: development, implementation, and strategy.

During the course, students get exposure to multiple blockchain implementation concepts and a unique guideline for sustainable and scalable blockchain development using quantum-resistant ledgers.

Considering the market opportunity and skills required for different target groups, EC-Council has launched three new blockchain programs:

- 1. Blockchain Business Leader Certification (BBLC)
- 2. Blockchain Fintech Certification (BFC)
- 3. Blockchain Developer Certification (BDC)

Blockchain technology is becoming more prominent in today's digital world, and getting certified is a great way to showcase your knowledge and lend credibility to your resume.

EC-Council's expert-designed courses will provide you with hands-on experience and help you gain valuable insights that are mapped to real job roles.
