AiSP Quantum Security Meetup

2 July 2025

Join us for an engaging session at the upcoming AiSP Quantum Security Special Interest Group (SIG) Meetup, where experts, innovators, and enthusiasts from the quantum security community gather to explore the evolving threat landscape and future-ready solutions.

The session will open with welcome remarks by Mr Michael Lew, AiSP Quantum Security SIG Lead, alongside representatives from CSA Singapore, setting the tone for an insightful afternoon.

We are pleased to welcome distinguished speakers who will share vital perspectives on quantum security strategies and innovations:

Dr Kawin Boonyapreddee

Chief Strategy Officer & APAC CEO, Applied Quantum

Topic: Primer: The Quantum Threat Landscape

Gain a foundational understanding of the “harvest-now-decrypt-later” threat model and the urgency of transitioning to post-quantum cryptography (PQC).

Mr Cyril Tan

Quantum Security Architect, SpeQtral

Topic: Spotlight: Quantum Tech in Singapore

Discover real-world use cases of quantum key distribution (QKD) and satellite-based secure communications developed by local pioneers.

Dr Prasanna Ravi

CEO, PQStation

Topic: Demo: PQC Scanning in Action

Watch a live demonstration of advanced tools for scanning and identifying PQC vulnerabilities, with actionable insights for seamless adoption.

A panel discussion will follow, featuring all speakers as they delve deeper into technical challenges and engage the audience in an interactive Q&A session. The event will close with final remarks and key takeaways from Mr Michael Lew and CSA Singapore.

AiSP AI x DevSecOps Meetup 2025 16 July 2025

Join us for an engaging evening at the upcoming AiSP AI & DevSecOps Special Interest Group (SIG) Meetup, where industry professionals and enthusiasts come together to explore the intersection of artificial intelligence and secure software development practices.

The session will begin with networking over dinner, followed by welcome remarks from our SIG Leads, Tam and Stanley. Attendees can look forward to insightful presentations, including a deep dive into securing AI systems through threat modeling and testing by a GovTech lead engineer, and a discussion by Trend Micro on how they support clients in navigating AI and DevSecOps challenges with real-world use cases.

We'll conclude the evening with a closing address by Stanley, wrapping up a night of meaningful dialogue, learning, and community building.

Whether you're exploring AI integration or enhancing your DevSecOps approach, this meetup offers valuable perspectives and connections to help you stay ahead in the evolving tech landscape.

Date: 16 July 2025 (Wednesday)

Time: 6PM – 9PM (Registration starts at 6pm)

Venue: Trend Micro Singapore (6 Temasek Boulevard #16-01/05, Suntec Tower 4, Singapore 038986)

Call for Sponsors for AI Security Summit 2025

Launched in 2024 and organized by the Association of Information Security Professionals (AiSP) AI Special Interest Group (SIG), the AiSP AI Security Summit is a unique annual event that explores the critical intersection of artificial intelligence and cybersecurity. This year's summit delves into the emerging paradigm of Agentic AI—systems that can plan, act, and adapt with minimal human oversight—and the complex security challenges they introduce across the public, private, and academic sectors.

From threat amplification and loss of control to data integrity and trust, the event addresses the risks inherent in these powerful technologies.

By bringing together thought leaders and practitioners, the summit aims to chart a path toward the resilient, responsible deployment of Agentic AI—unlocking its promise while safeguarding our digital future.

Blackpanda Recognized with APPACT Appreciation Awards for 2022, 2023, and 2025

Blackpanda is proud to be awarded the APPACT Appreciation Awards by the Singapore Police Force CyberCrime Command for three consecutive years—2022, 2023, and 2025. This recognition honors our contribution to strengthening public-private collaboration in combating cybercrime and advancing cyber resilience across Singapore.

At Blackpanda, we believe cyber emergency response should be as accessible as public emergency services. Our IR-1 solution—Asia's first fixed-cost cyber incident response subscription—reflects this commitment, ensuring that immediate, frontline cyber response is just a phone call away. We are grateful to the CyberCrime Command (CCC) for this recognition and extend our congratulations to our fellow APPACT partners who were also honored at the Appreciation Dinner. Together, we are building a safer digital ecosystem for all. Learn more about our mission and this milestone here
