

Welcome Remarks by AiSP Vice-President, Mr Tony Low at AiSP Cloud Security Summit 2023

1. Good morning
 - a. AiSP Patron, Mr Tan Kiat How Senior Minister of State for Ministry of Communications & Information
 - b. Industry Partners,
 - c. Ladies and Gentlemen
2. Welcome to AiSP Cloud Security Summit 2023. Firstly, I would like to thank AiSP Patron – Senior Minister of State, Mr Tan Kiat How for taking the time to grace the summit.
3. As part of the AiSP Cloud Security Special Interest Group, we organised the second edition of the Cloud Security Summit, with the theme “Simplifying Cloud for a Safer Future”.
4. Cloud computing has become an integral part of modern businesses and organizations. The cloud offers a wide range of benefits, including increased flexibility, scalability, and accessibility. However, many users still struggle to navigate the complex landscape of cloud computing and face security concerns. Today’s summit aims to simplify the cloud experience and make it safer for everyone. Our experts in cloud computing will share their insights and best practices for utilizing the cloud in a straightforward manner while maintaining security.

5. Cloud Security SIG

Through our Cloud Security Special Interest Group, AiSP hoped to foster stronger collaboration within professionals security & push stronger awareness in Cloud Security.

Earlier this year, AiSP had renewed our MOU with Centre for Strategic Cyberspace + International Studies (CSCIS), where we merged our Cloud Security Special Interest Group together for stronger collaboration and cross support for association event.

Today, AiSP will be signing the MOU with Cisco Networking Academy where we will be partnering together to bring a series of cloud security workshops. Through these workshops, we aim to enrich the collective knowledge and expertise of all participants.

6. Partners & Sponsors

This community event would not have been possible without the strong support of our partners and sponsors. We would like to thank all sponsors and supporting partners for supporting today's event.

Conclusion

7. With that, thank you for joining us today and I hope that you will enjoy the summit.
