Student Volunteer & Recognition Programme (SVRP) Launch Seminar

AiSP inaugurated the “Student Volunteer & Recognition Programme” (SVRP) on 11th October 2018. SVRP aims to encourage volunteerism amongst students while developing their interest in cybersecurity. We had more than 100 students and educators from the IHLs attended the event.

We thank Mr Wong Choong Bong, CSA’s Deputy Director Ecosystem Development, shared with the audience on CSA’s aims in creating a more vibrant cybersecurity ecosystem and developing the energetic young through SVRP.

We also had the pleasure of having 4 notable speakers shared their volunteering journey in the past and now. Their stories invigorated and inspired the students. We thank Mr Jeremy Heng (Winner for Cybersecurity Awards 2018), Mr Tok Yee Ching (PhD Student at SUTD), Mr Emil Tan (Advisor at Cortex Insight & Organiser of Infosec-City, Singapore) and Ms Sugar Chan (Cybersecurity Senior Consultant at Booz Allen Hamilton).
